Handheld Group Appoints New Chief Financial Officer

Christer Florén, experienced at managing multinational finances, is announced as new CFO

Lidköping, Sweden, 18 March 2011 – Handheld Group of Sweden, a global supplier of rugged mobile computers, has appointed Christer Florén as their new Chief Financial Officer. Florén's hiring is an integral part of the company's continued emphasis on building a world-class organisation that is positioned for further international growth.

Florén has deep experience in the world of finance and accounting, and has worked extensively with multinational enterprises. Most recently he was in charge of the financial department at Rettig Sweden AB. Florén also has experience in financial auditing.

"I am excited to be joining such a fast-growing international company," Florén said. "Handheld's level of ambition and goals for the future are inspiring, and it's professionally stimulating to be a part of that and contribute to the further development of the company."

"I am thrilled to have Christer on board; he strengthens our management team. In our robust expansion phase we need to continue adding top management resources, and Christer brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to our team," said Jerker Hellström, CEO of the Handheld Group.

Florén begins his employment with Handheld immediately, and will be based in Lidköping at Handheld's headquarters.
